Keep Mesquite Beautiful, Inc. celebrates 20 years as a Tree City, USA by unveiling the Lawrence Homestead Outdoor Classroom and the planting of 10 Eastern Red Cedars

(Mesquite, TX) Keep Mesquite Beautiful, Inc. and the City of Mesquite celebrated Arbor Day on Friday, February 26th. This Arbor Day marked the 20th anniversary for the City of Mesquite being designated as a Tree City USA by the Arbor Day Foundation. Arbor Day is celebrated nationally to encourage tree planning and care. The celebration included the planting of ten (10) eastern red cedars and the unveiling of the Lawrence Homestead Outdoor Classroom on the Opal Lawrence Historical Park.
